

Supporting employment of refugees:

Migrant and settlement services

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/settling-in-australia/humanitarian-settlement-program/about-the-program> - provide refugees with assistance in finding and keeping employment (up to 18 months after arrival)

Job active network

<https://www.employment.gov.au/jobactive> - connects job seekers with employers, including refugee job seekers

Refugee talent

<https://refugeetalent.com/> - platform to connect refugees with employment opportunities

Career seekers

www.careerseekers.org.au – professional career internships for humanitarian migrants

Community Corporate

<https://communitycorporate.com.au/> provide custom designed refugee employment solutions with corporations looking to create social impact

Humans Like Us

<https://www.humanslikeus.org/> network to share practices and ideas for fostering refugee employment

Intermediate labour markets – provide paid work for refugees as a training pathway to permanent employment opportunities eg The Bread & Butter Project, Community Resources, The Social Outfit, CommUnity Construction

Supporting entrepreneurship of refugees:

Ignite

<https://www.ignite.ssi.org.au/> - Provides training and support for refugee-founded start-ups

Catalysr

<https://catalysr.com.au/> - tech start up incubator for refugee start ups

Thrive

<https://thriverefugeeenterprise.org.au/> - Offers microfinance for refugee entrepreneurs

Sisterworks

<https://sisterworks.org.au/> - Melb based support group for migrant women that supports economic empowerment

Migrant Women in Business

<https://mwib.com.au/> - Melb based organisation to provide entrepreneurship training and support to migrant women

Global Sisters

<https://globalsisters.org/> - provide training and support and microfinance for migrant women to be self employed

Refugee entrepreneurship research

<https://cpd.org.au/2019/04/seven-steps-to-success-report/> - research from Centre For Policy Development about the success and support needs of refugee entrepreneurs eg refugees are twice as likely to be entrepreneurs in Australia relative to the average job seeker